Unknown Subjects (4);
Guardian Bank
49 North Franklin
Hempstead, New York - July 3, 1980
Bank Robbery

Dear Sir:

At approximately noon on July 3, 1980, six black males armed with one shotgun and three hand weapons, robbed the captioned bank [redacted]. Subsequent investigation led to the arrest by the Nassau County Police Department (NCPD) of former Knickerbocker professional basketball player Luther D. "Ticky" Burden on July 5, 1980, and [redacted] on [redacted] at Lower Merion Township near Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Investigation continues and the Robbery Squad of the NCPD anticipates as many as four additional arrests in this matter.

[redacted] and implicating Burden.

This will confirm that when apprised of the facts in this matter on July 16, 1980, Assistant United States Attorney [redacted], Eastern District of New York advised that inasmuch as two subjects are already in the custody of the local authorities, she would decline Federal prosecution in favor of prosecution by the local authorities.

Very truly yours,

- Document(s) were located which originated with, or contained information concerning, other Government Agency (ies) [OGA].
- This information has been referred to the OGA(s) for review and direct response to you.
- We are consulting with another agency. The FBI will correspond with you regarding this information when the consultation is completed.
- In accordance with standard FBI practice and pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. § 552/552a (b)(7)(E)/(j)(2)], this response neither confirms nor denies the existence of your subject's name on any watch lists.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. Enclosed for your information is a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions.

For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under "Contact Us." The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

You have the right to appeal any denials in this release. Appeals should be directed in writing to the Director, Office Information Policy (OIP), U.S. Department of Justice, 1425 New York Ave., NW, Suite 11050, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's eFOIA portal at <http://www.justice.gov/oip/efoia-portal.html>. Your appeal to OIP must be postmarked or transmitted within sixty (60) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. The envelope and the letter should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Request Number in any correspondence to us for proper identification of your request.

The enclosed material is from the main investigative file(s) in which the subject(s) of your request was the focus of the investigation. Our search located additional references, in files relating to other individuals, or matters, which may or may not be about your subject(s). Our experience has shown when ident, references usually contain information similar to the information processed in the main file(s). Because of our significant backlog, we have given priority to processing only the main investigative file(s). If you want the references, you must submit a separate request for them in writing, and they will be reviewed at a later date, as time and resources permit.

See additional information which follows.

In response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, enclosed is a processed copy of the FBI New York Field Office file 91-NY-19326 Serial 186.

The enclosed documents represent the final release of information responsive to your request.

This material is being provided to you at no charge.

Sincerely,

David M. Hardy
